

NASHOBA Pride

The Nashoba Regional High School community works together to achieve high intellectual and ethical standards while discovering and developing the gifts and talents of all. Each member of our school community recognizes his or her role and responsibility in creating a learning environment based upon respect, trust, teamwork and enthusiasm.

Parent Conferences:

Nashoba will be conducting parent conferences for all students beginning Thursday, December 10 from 5:00—7:50 pm and again on Friday, December 11 from 7:30—11:20 am. This is a great opportunity for parents to meet more formally with our teaching faculty in a way to inform progress and areas of potential improvement. As in past years, we are using an online scheduling tool for parents to conveniently schedule their appointments. I am attaching the link to our website which also includes very specific step-by-step instructions. If a parent needs assistance or does not have access to the internet, please call the main office of the high school at (978)-779-2257.

Worcester County Superintendents' Association Certificate of Academic Excellence:

The 2009-2010 Worcester County Superintendents' Association Certificate of Academic Excellence has been awarded to Samantha Squires. The annual award is presented to a student from each Worcester County public high school district who is not only outstanding academically but has also left their mark on the school in a variety of extra-curricular and service activities. Samantha is a Semi-Finalist in the 2009 National Merit Program and is a member of the National Honor Society. Through NHS she has participated in a variety of service related activities. In addition, she has been a contributing member of various clubs and teams. It is a great honor and one that is reflective of the hard work that Samantha and so many students undertake in their time at NRHS. Congratulations.

Plays and Activities Highlight What is Great at NRHS:

The fall play just finalized its three day run the weekend of November 20—November 22. This year's selection, Dickens' A Christmas Carol, was an outstanding performance. Nick Sestito, Adam Tocci, Kate Bedding, Liz Cross, Max Dischler, Alex Llanso, Will Collett, Taylor Leaming, Alex Pappas, Colin King, Thomas Granger, and many others played key roles in the performance. Additionally, numerous others worked behind the scenes to help make the show go on. Ultimately, the efforts of this entire team of students, community members, and faculty representatives contributed to the overall success of this great event.

Overall, this performance simply scratches the surface at the various activities that students are encouraged to participate in and attend. Our music programs have upcoming Jazz Concert (December 4) and Holiday Choral Concert (December 17) shows which will surely display the "gifts and talents" of those various students. Furthermore, our athletic teams had great success in their contests this past fall. The boys' and girls' cross-country teams both had exceptional seasons. The boys' team finished sixth in the state in Division 1. Coby Horowitz himself finished sixth in the overall field while many other team members contributed to the team's success. Abigail Hurd represented our girls' team by finishing 14 overall in a large field of state Division 1 student-athletes. Our girls' soccer team advanced to the Central MA District semifinals. Mary Hilliger, Chelsea Roche, and Amy Millet also were recognized as all-stars in various categories.

Our football team advanced to the Central MA Division 1 playoffs (set to begin on Tuesday, December 1st). Many others participated in our volleyball, field hockey, and soccer programs.

On Friday, December 4th our musicians are scheduled to perform a jazz concert in our auditorium. Two weeks later, Nashoba singers will perform a holiday concert on December 17th. At about this time our Robotics team will begin preparations for this year's First Robotics competition. In addition, our high performing Math Team continues to challenge the field in the Worcester County Math League. Furthermore, Nashoba's Student Council and National Honor Societies are generating community service activities that benefit the school and the community.

These groups and activities represent a small sampling of the various clubs, sports, service organizations, music, and drama opportunities that seek to find ways to involve any and all students in the school. There is a great amount of research that indicates that students who participate in the school after the normal school hours do significantly better both academically and socially (see reference listed below). Our Nashoba faculty strongly wishes to support our students in the classroom and the fields, the stage, the community, and wherever their desires and interests lead them.

Nashoba Welcomes a New Mathematics Department Head:

I am very pleased to introduce Mrs. Kathy Crowley as the new Department Chair for mathematics. She recently replaced Joan Fallon who retired at the end of last year. Mrs. Crowley brings a great deal of experience and expertise to the position. She also wished to note her philosophy and plans to continue the excellence that has long been a mark of the Nashoba mathematics program.

"I am excited by the opportunity this leadership role enables me to head a department of educators all of whom possess not only laudable academic intellect but also an intrinsic will to give each student the best possible education he or she can attain. Truly the entire department can be proud of its educational goals and their strong commitment to educating all of the students here at Nashoba.

Our mathematic scholars are fortunate to have many academic opportunities that will facilitate their search in higher education. For instance, there are many promising initiatives underway including the math teams and, this year, a computer-programming course. In addition, our students are offered AP math programs that allow students to receive direct college benefits in the form of college credit or advanced placement. Furthermore, there are several co-taught math classes that support all ranges of learners. That said, as a department we will continue to create and implement options that will further add to our repertoire of academic prospects.

As Department Chair, I am grateful that I have esteemed colleagues working with me to further the academic opportunities for Nashoba's students. I am confident that during my tenure as Department Chair this department will continue to develop the mathematical promise of each and every individual student. Needless to say, the Department diligently assesses and evaluates ways in which to (1) improve student progress, (2) meet and exceed mathematics standards, and (3) develop, institute and revise programs that are offered. I take on this role with both a great sense of integrity and pride permitting me to work collectively and effectively with the teachers of this department. Together, we are eager to continue to offer many opportunities for after school help and encourage students to Do Math!"

Nashoba Freshman Math Team Finishes 2nd at First Meet.

The Nashoba Freshman Math Team led by perfect scores from Sorin Vatasoiu and Steven Tang earned a 2nd place finish at the first Freshman math meet held on November 4th. Two hundred and five students from 25 public and private Worcester County schools compete in the Worcester County Freshman Math League. First place was captured by Worcester Academy; the other schools in division A include St. Johns, AMSA Charter, Algonquin, Shrewsbury, Westborough, Worcester South, and Wachusett.

Sorin's perfect score earned him a first place ranking in the field of 205 competitors – shared with four other students. Steven's 6th place ranking is 0.331 quality points (out of 11.667) behind the top five students. This year is going to be a tight race for the league's top freshman scorer that Steven won last year as an 8th grader.

Two other Nashoba students, Madeline Jenkins and David Tang, turned in near perfect scores (17 of 18 points) to rank in the top 10% of all the competitors and earn a 15th place ranking. Strong performances were turned in by Connie Jiang for a 24th place ranking, and Joel Sharin currently ranked 32nd in the league. The entire Nashoba freshman team's individual ranks are in the top 34% of the 205 students. The other team members competing included: Catalina Damarati, Sam Kirschbaum, and Emma Hewett.

We are looking forward to the next Freshman meet on January 6th. It's not too late to join the Freshman or Varsity math teams. If you know a student who is passionate about math and would like to have fun problem solving with like-minded students, have them speak with our coach, Ms. Redford. We practice every Monday after school in room 103 from 2:30 – 3:30.

Nashoba Math Team places 12th at Harvard/MIT New England Math Meet

Twenty math students represented Nashoba at the second annual HMNT (Harvard/MIT New England Tournament) on November 7th held at MIT. The meet included 335 students from 33 public and private schools that lie within 75 miles of Harvard/MIT. Nashoba's A team finished 12th, and Nashoba's B team finished 23rd of the 63 teams at the meet.

Cam Hewett's strong performance earned him a 28th place finish of the 335 students at the meet. Strong individual performances were turned in by Nashoba students in both the General Test and the Theme test rounds. In the General Test, Thomas Granger finished 32nd, followed by Cam Hewett – 34th, Steven Tang – 37th and Josh Herbison – 40th. In the Theme test, Sorin Vatasoiu placed 16th and Cam Hewett placed 38th. All of the students enjoyed the day that concluded with a fast paced "guts round" where the teams receive questions three at a time, and only once these are completed can the team runner dash up to receive the next three questions. Spectators have to stay out of the aisles near the end of this round as students are running to get last minute answers submitted before time runs out.

The competition for the November HMNT meet included teams from public schools such as Lexington, Newton, Acton/Boxborough, Westborough, and Westford, as well as private schools including Phillips Exeter, Phillips Academy, Northfield Mount Herman, Buckingham, Brown, and Nichols, and Worcester Academy. We are pleased with Nashoba's 12th place and 23rd place finishes in such a competitive field and look forward to attending the Spring Harvard/MIT tournament that is open to teams from around the world and has top teams from numerous states in attendance.

Christmas Collection for the Food Pantry

This year the local food pantries are low on personal care items and high on patrons! The high school is doing a Personal Care Item Drive to help restock the local pantry shelves for those in need. Typically these items are fairly expensive. Most of those who are struggling may go without these little extras in order to purchase food.

The Student Council, along with staff, is challenging our students to out-do themselves with donations this Christmas.

The drive is from December 1-15.

Collection items:

- Shampoo and conditioner
- Deodorant
- Tampons and pads

- Toothpaste and toothbrushes
- Body and face lotions
- Bar and shower soap
- Combs and brushes
- Shaving lotion, packaged razors and blades

The class collecting the most items to donate will win a Pizza Party! Please help your child to remember these important dates and donate from the heart.

Holidays for High-Schoolers

No, it's not too late to think about this program!

With your help we can reach this year's goal!

It is often said that Christmas is for kids, yet even those who have outgrown Santa still dream of finding a gift or two under the tree. But not all families have the means to buy gifts for older children, and not all "giving" programs serve teenagers.

"Holidays for High Schoolers" is a compassionate effort by the adult community of the Nashoba Regional High School to bring a little Christmas joy to those who might otherwise go without a gift.

Student selection is discreet and completely confidential. No names are used. Contributions are collected by the school nurses to insure anonymity. Holidays for High Schoolers is in its eighth year. It has been tremendously gratifying to witness the community's efforts to share with high schoolers who, like younger children, are touched by the generosity inspired by the spirit of the season.

To make a donation, send checks made payable to:

December is National Drunk and Drugged Driving Prevention Month

Quick Facts about Drunk and Drugged Driving

- In 2005, 16,885 people died in alcohol related motor vehicle crashes, accounting for 39% of all traffic-related deaths in the United States (NHTSA 2006).
- An alcohol-related motor vehicle crash kills someone every 31 minutes and nonfatal injures someone every two minutes (NHTSA 2006).
- Drugs other than alcohol (e.g., marijuana and cocaine) are involved in about 18% of motor vehicle driver deaths. These other drugs are generally used in combination with alcohol (Jones et al. 2003).
- Each year, alcohol-related crashes in the United States cost about $51 billion (Blincoe et al. 2002).
- Most drinking and driving episodes go undetected. In 2005, nearly 1.4 million drivers were arrested for driving under the influence of alcohol or narcotics (Department of Justice 2005). That's less than one percent of the 159 million self-reported episodes of alcohol-impaired driving among U.S. adults each year (Quinlan et al. 2005)

For more facts, see CDC's impaired driving fact sheet.

place on Friday, January 22 at 7:00 pm. (Snow date January 23rd)

Looking forward...The spring musical, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dream Coat will be performed March 26—28. Auditions will take place on December 14th and 15th.

Note * Middle school students should watch for auditions in January for the junior chorus for "Joseph". Fifteen students from each middle school (45 total) will be chosen to participate.

The next Friends of Drama meeting will take place on December 9th at 7:00 pm. Information about drama news, auditions, and contacts can be found on our website www.nashobadrama.com.

Nashoba Regional Scholarship Foundation

The Nashoba Regional Scholarship Foundation (NRSF) is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization that provides scholarships for Nashoba Regional High School students. It is a local chapter of Dollars for Scholars®. The Foundation is comprised of parents, students, faculty, alumni, and other community members who desire to aid students in accomplishing their goals of acquiring a higher education. There are many opportunities for member involvement, such as organizing events to raise funds for scholarship awards, participating as a "reader" for scholarship applications, becoming a member of the NRSF board of directors, participating in various sub-committees, etc. Please consider becoming an NRSF member.

Annual Fundraising Campaign

The NRSF annual fund drive is underway. Be on the lookout for the NRSF brochure in your mail. We need your help to continue and expand scholarship availability for Nashoba students! The NRSF would like to thank those who have already made donations to this year's annual campaign. The NRSF is a non-profit 501(c)(3) corporation.

Save the Date and Dance Those Winter Blues Away!

The Nashoba Regional Scholarship Foundation is sponsoring a dance on Saturday evening, January 23rd, 2010. Get your friends together to have some fun and dance the night away! There will be a variety of raffle baskets available.

Look for further details and ticket information in the January newsletter.

January Meeting

The next NRSF meeting will be held on Monday, January 11th, at 7 pm in the NRHS Academic Support Center. Please consider donating some time to this worthwhile cause. New members are always welcome! If you would like more information, please join us at the January meeting or contact Pete Masters at Peter.Masters@comcast.net or 978-897-7321.

SPED PAC Talks the Talk in January

The next meeting of the Nashoba District SPED PAC will be on Wednesday evening, January 20th, 2010 at 7:15 pm at Nashoba Regional High School. There is no December event.

The topic of January's meeting is "How Does Your Child Talk?"— a presentation and discussion facilitated by NRSD Speech/Language Pathologists Nancy Donnelly, Karen Fitzgerald, and Karen Dealy. Join us to learn about early speech sound development and activities to promote effective articulation skills.

The SPED PAC offers presentations on a variety of subjects and provides a forum for interaction with other parents, professionals and community members who have experience with children with special needs. March 24th will feature "Parenting Children with ADHD: A Little Humor Goes a Long Way".

The group posts information from other organizations on the NRSD Special Education NEWS page. Check this site and the NRSD.net SPED PAC page for more information as it's available. To be added to the monthly email distribution, please contact Joan Finger at Joan@ZooterGroupTutoring.com or (978) 337-5132 or (978) 779-6046. Those wishing handouts from November's meeting on Basic Rights may also contact Joan Finger.

Nashoba Unified Sports Basketball and Jolly Jaunt Run & Walk

Nashoba Unified Sports resumes basketball in January and is also participating in the Jolly Jaunt 5K run and walk on Saturday morning, December 5th with Special Olympics-Massachusetts in Marlboro to help fund activities. Local volunteers are invited to join Bob Moalli and his fellow runners in this event.

Contributions are always welcome, payable to Special Olympics-MA, marked for Nashoba Unified Sports, and sent to Bob Moalli at 275 Harvard Rd., Bolton, MA 01740.

Contributions, or to registration for the Jolly Jaunt may also be made online at <http://www.kintera.org/faf/search/searchTeamPart.asp?ievent=322097&lis=1&kntae322097=D56C13B475864BEFAACE314DFD8344A3&supId=0&team=3604843&cj=Y>

- Sunday, December 13, from Noon—5 pm, at the Stow Shopping Plaza, for those of you who want pizza for the Pats game!

Go to one or both!! Don't forget to bring the flyer with you, or we won't get the 20% donation. Thanks for your support!

Stow Gobbler Thanks

Three years ago, we never would have dreamed that the Stow Gobbler 5K road race would have nearly eight hundred runners and walkers crossing the finish line on race day. For the third year in a row, our expectations were shattered by not only the number of participants but also by the help and support that the community has given us. The Town of Stow has given us a huge lesson in how a community can come together to make a dream happen. There is an incredible amount of people who we would like to thank for helping to make the race the biggest success that it could be; we are extremely appreciative.

First, we would like to thank the Stow and Bolton police force for being present at the race and for helping to keep the runners safe, as well as the Stow fire department. Chief Trefry and Sgt. Lima of the Stow Police were two of our critical initial contacts, who after listening to our plan gave us the green light to proceed. Laura Greenough and Stow Recreation also backed us up from the beginning, providing the support we have needed these three years, both to get the race going and to keep it moving along steadily. Additionally, the race would not have been possible without Bose™ and the use of their property, and we would like to thank the security force at Bose™ for being so helpful, friendly, and ready to work with us.

We'd also like to thank our excellent sponsors: Facilis Technology, ET&L Corporation, Embroidery & More, H. H. Warren Insurance Agency, Inc., Boston Bean House, Hudson Road Auto, Inc., Sheldon Farm Septic, and Zonars Candies. Their donations are critical to our success.

On the volunteer front, we are extremely grateful for the help from the Ryan/Woods family, who we have depended on year after year. They lend us their tent and help us to set it up when it's cold outside. Mrs. Woods efficiently works our same day registration table and Mr. Ryan has manned our parking lot and race route. The Kopczynski/Sturgis family once again provided their enthusiastic support; Mrs. Sturgis has been great at the registration table also, keeping things running smoothly, and Mr. Kopczynski has organized all of our volunteers on race-day and made sure that they knew what they were doing. All of our numerous other volunteers were excellent as well, getting up before sunrise to help us out however they were needed.

We would like to extend our thanks to Dunkin' Donuts on Hudson Road, for the hot chocolate and coffee that kept everyone warm, and the Outdoor Store for providing the bags for the runners. Additionally, our mother, who has helped us greatly the last two years, helped us even more this year when we were off at college, and without her we would not have been able to continue with the race. Thank you. Finally, most heartfelt thanks to the runners and walkers who come on Thanksgiving morning to participate. You're the best.

Unfortunately, being away at college makes it difficult to organize the race and devote the time needed to it, so we are in the process of looking for someone/a group of dedicated citizens to take over the race for next year. The race would remain under the auspices of Stow Recreation. We would be more than happy to serve as consultants. We would love to see The Stow Gobbler Thanksgiving tradition continue. Our sincere hope is that Stow Community Chest and Habitat for Humanity will continue to be able to count on the Stow Gobbler as they have from the beginning. If you are interested, please give us a call at 978-562-4165.

Lastly, anyone who is due a trophy/medal can pick it up from the Stow Recreation office in the old town hall. Age group results are available on www.coolrunning.com.

Again, thanks.
