Anti-Bullying presentations for Nashoba students on March 30th:

The focal point of the assembly anti-bullying focuses mainly on cyber issues. Current research indicates that by the high school years, most bullying occurs online or has an online component. Issues such as cyber bullying and a variety of damaging electronic behaviors are discussed in the seminar hosted by the Massachusetts Aggression Reduction Center (MARC). The hour-long seminar will explore the impact of one's cyber-behavior on themselves, their future, their family, and their classmates. Safe and appropriate online behavior is introduced and its importance is stressed. Students are reminded of the potential hazards of over-disclosing online or via texting. In addition, real life cases are presented in more vivid detail than with younger students.

Overall, the purpose of authentic examples has been found to be particularly useful with the high school age group. Students in high school seem to respond well to cases of real teenagers who have made bullying, cyber bullying, texting and other online mistakes. The program concludes with concrete ideas of how one can best deal with bullies in the real world and in cyberspace.

We are hopeful that the impact will be positive and will further strengthen the atmosphere here at Nashoba.

Course Registrations:

The course registration process will take place through the online PowerSchool portal starting Monday, April 2, and running through Monday, April 11. Please review the program of studies carefully prior to making selections regarding electives, academic level placements, and/or overrides into other courses. The program of studies which can be downloaded from the NRHS website <http://nrhs.nrsd.net/program.php> includes an overview of all possible courses, academic level descriptions, course sequences, distribution requirements, etc.

Like last year, the course registration process will be taking place online through our PowerSchool Parental Access page. Step-by-step directions will be forthcoming. Any parent or student who cannot access PowerSchool will receive assistance at the school through their child's guidance counselor.

Nicholas Alberts, Thomas Whitney Granger, Dylan Plaskon, and Caleb Wisch recognized as National Merit Scholarship Finalists:

Nashoba recently received notification that seniors Nicholas Alberts, Thomas Whitney Granger, Dylan Plaskon, and Caleb Wisch have been named Finalists in the National Merit Scholarship program. The four seniors are part of an esteemed cohort of just four of approximately 15,000 students from a group that started at well over a million and a half nationwide. In the National Merit Scholarship program, the finalists may receive offers for scholarships from a variety of colleges/universities throughout the country. Congratulations to these four fine students, their families, and the teachers and coaches who have inspired them along the way.

This recognition is a great example of hard work and diligence in combination with great teaching and strong, encouraging support along the way. It is a recognition that the entire school community can share with enthusiasm.

Free and Reduced Lunch (http://www.nrsd.net/documents/reduced_lunch_07.pdf):

The federally funded Free and Reduced (F/R) Lunch program helps students that qualify receive a nutritious meal for free or at a reduced price. In addition, there are other potential areas to consider that make this a positive outcome for our students.

First, F/R lunch is anonymous. With the advent of PowerSchool's PowerLunch program, there is absolutely no stigma attached to F/R lunch as every student purchases lunch via their identification card and/or lunch identification number. We do not exchange money anymore, thus each student approaches the lunch line in the same manner. Second, there are numerous scholarships that are available to seniors who have a financial need. Students who receive F/R lunch are automatically eligible to apply. Finally, students are eligible to qualify for a reduction and/or waiver for athletic user fees and class dues.

Students who have a high amount of stress about finances or who are hungry have difficulty meeting NRHS's mission of achieving "high intellectual and ethical standards." We do not want any student to have an impediment for which we can easily resolve. Please feel free to call or email Jeremy Roche with any questions; or, simply download the form from the following web site: http://www.nrsd.net/documents/reduced_lunch_07.pdf and return it to the Director of Food Services, NRSD District Offices, 50 Mechanic Street, Bolton, MA 01740.

WIC information (www.mass.gov/wic):

French Class wins ACTFL video podcast contest:

Nashoba's French 3 class recently was notified that they won the high school category of the ACTFL (American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages) video podcast contest! This national contest was sponsored by ACTFL to celebrate "Discover Languages Month" during February. The class' video "Going around the world in the 21st century" is a rap song that centers on students traveling to various countries around the world. The French 3 class won not only the judges' vote but also the popular vote. Nashoba received the most votes of all the categories (elementary, middle, high school, and college levels). Thank you to all of you who supported them by voting for the video.

The link to their video can be found on the Nashoba website. The class will receive a check from ACTFL, and the students and their teacher, Kathy McHale, plan to spend the money having lunch in a French restaurant.

Congratulations or should I say Felicitations to the class! DECA Students Move on to State Competition Nashoba Regional High School would like to congratulate 11 DECA (Distributive Education Clubs of America) members who recently qualified for the DECA State competition in Boston, MA. Nashoba competed in the district competition in Chelmsford, MA against schools from Westford, Chelmsford, Billerica, Tewksbury, Lowell and Dracut. The 11 members are: Gia Demeo and Brian Killackey (1st place, Advertising Campaign), Ryane Jackson and Kristen Holbrook (Advertising Campaign), Tim Von Stetten (Accounting), Jacob Mansfield (Accounting), Oliver Jenkins (Accounting), Luke Puleo (Restaurant Management), Will Shepherd (Food Marketing), Sean Foster (Hospitality), and Will Hurley (Finance).

Our Chieftains now move on to compete in the State Career Development Conference at the Marriot Copley Hotel from March 10-12. The competition is sure to be stiff from high schools across the state of Massachusetts. DECA is asking your help to combat the costs of the competition. Every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday for the month of March we will be picking a raffle prize winner! Each prize is worth at least $20 of gift certificates to many local restaurants and stores. Please see any DECA member to purchase a raffle ticket for just $1! Go Chieftains! Mr. Andreopoulos - DECA Advisor

Spread the Word to End the Word

Nashoba Raises Awareness

On March 2, Nashoba Regional High School will be participating in the national "Spread the Word to End the Word" event to remove the pejorative use of the word "retarded" in everyday conversation. In conjunction with the national event, Nashoba will be raising awareness for the cause by hosting Brittany Maier in concert on March 4th during the school day. Brittany is blind, autistic, and a piano savant. If you have any questions please contact Brendan Aylward at 978-855-9141 or email brendan.aylward7@gmail.com.

Siblings, Finances, Transitions on Upcoming SPED PAC Plans.

The Nashoba District SPED PAC will meet on Wednesday, March 16th at 7:15 pm at Nashoba Regional High School in the ASC (room 216).

Possible topics for this and the remaining meetings this year include: Siblings Have Special Needs Too: Nurturing Healthy Sibling Relationships; ARICA (the new state law mandating coverage of ancillary services for those under the autism umbrella); Transition Planning: What's the next step for your child whether changing schools or moving into the adult world; Financial Planning for families of children with special needs. To find out what topic has been selected for the March 16th meeting, please check

SPED PAC meetings include presentations on a variety of subjects and provide a forum for interaction with other parents, professionals and community members who have experience with children with special needs. If you haven't attended a meeting before, we'd love to have you attend. Math Team Excels

Success in the AMC 10/12 – six students move one step closer to the US Math Olympiad

Twenty-two Nashoba students challenged themselves by taking the 2011 American Mathematics Competition on Tuesday, February 9th. This 90 minute competitive test is the first step to qualifying for U.S. Math Olympiad and the U.S. Junior Math Olympiad (grades 10 and below). This year we have six students who have qualified for the second level of testing – the American Invitational Mathematics Exam. The students include sophomores Joel Sharin, Steven Tang, and Sorin Vatasoiu; junior Tanner Douglas, and seniors Thomas Granger and Caleb Wisch.

This is the most students Nashoba has ever had qualify for the AIME. These six students will take a 15 question, 3 hour examination in hopes of doing well enough to earn one of the 270 places to take the USA Mathematics Olympiad test (11th and 12th grades) or the 230 places to take the USA Junior Mathematics Olympiad (9th and 10th grades). The AIME provides these exceptional students with yet another opportunity to challenge their mathematical abilities. So when you see these students studying some extra tough math problems, you'll know they are prepping for the AIME they will take on March 17th. Congratulations should go out to all 22 of the math team students who challenged themselves by taking the AMC 10/12 tests and especially to these six who have qualified for the next step in pursuing a spot on the U.S. Math Olympiad teams.

The Nashoba Math Team recently competed at the elite Spring HMMT. We were one of 100 teams from five different countries and 16 states. 800 students from Canada, China, Kenya, Korea, and the U.S. participated. Some of the best students from around the country's public, private, and magnet schools, as well as state all-star-teams attended. Teams of eight students came from California, Connecticut, Florida, Illinois, Maryland, Massachusets, Michigan, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Utah, Virginia, West Virginia, and Washington DC to compete in this annual tournament.

Nashoba was one of the 39 public school teams in attendance, 11 from Massachusetts. Our Nashoba senior Thomas Granger finished 5th in his individual test (Calculus & Combinatorics) propelling him to 24th place of the 800 students. This strong showing combined with the teams' 20th finish in the team round, enabled Nashoba to finish a respectable 49th overall. The Nashoba team consisted of Thomas Granger, Madeline Jenkins, Oliver Jenkins, Cam Hewett, Becky Tang, Steven Tang, Sorin Vatasoiu, and Caleb Wisch. Congratulations to the team for such a strong showing.

Nashoba math students win WPI scholarships at Math Meet

WPI hosted 350 students in four-student teams at the 23rd annual WPI Invitational Math Tournament in the fall. Students represented 89 public and private high schools from Massachusetts, Maine, New Hampshire, and Rhode Island. Some of the best math talent in the New England states was represented at this meet and Nashoba finished a strong 15th place out of the 89 teams. The Nashoba team members were: Thomas Granger, Oliver Jenkins, Becky Tang, and Caleb Wisch. The team's top finish earned each member a $500 scholarship to WPI. Oliver Jenkins was Nashoba's top individual scorer, earning him a $1,000 WPI scholarship. Congratulations to each of these students.

Challenges for a Cure

Are you good with your hands? Have nerves of steel? Don't mind performing silly tasks in a short amount of time? Then WE NEED YOU!

Nashoba will be hosting the first "Challenges for a Cure" event on Friday night, April 1st. Based on the popular TV show "Minute to Win It," teams of staff members will be challenged to perform a variety of games - stacking golf balls, emptying a tissue box with one hand or shaking out Tic Tacs with only your mouth- in only 1 minute to win prizes and bragging rights. Interested in playing OR helping out behind the scenes, see Gail Callahan/Johnna Doyle or come to the meeting on March 8th at 2:30 in the Media Center.

All money raised at the event will be donated to Relay for Life. Nashoba has been hosting the Relay for 10 years, so we'd like to make this year special. Please join us!

Answer Your Phone for Graduates on March 13

The Nashoba Regional Scholarship Foundation (NRSF) will be holding its annual Phonathon on Sunday March 13 from 11 am to 5pm. Student volunteers will make calls to Bolton, Lancaster and Stow residents asking for support for the scholarship fund, which provided 25 deserving graduates with $1,000 scholarships last June as they headed off to college.

Please consider supporting NRSF by making a tax-exempt donation and/or volunteering to help out at the Phonathon (Contact Tpesanelli@gurobi.com to help). Students will be making calls from the cafeteria of the Florence Sawyer School and adult volunteers will provide support for the event. Students can gain community service time and can sign up for 3-hour shifts. See Sue Alaire in the Career Center, or find student reps: Sam Malmberg, Oliver Jenkins, Lisa Sangermano.

NRSF would also like to thank those who have already donated during its Annual Fund Drive. Your continued support and generosity will help award graduates this year and in years to come.

From the Nurse's Office

Stopping Germs at Home, Work and School
 Colds, other flu-like viruses, Strep, and stomach viruses have made an appearance this school year. Please remind your child to wash their hands before eating, after coughing or sneezing.

We would like to remind you of ways to protect yourself and family from ever present viruses.

How Germs Spread

The main way that illnesses like colds and flu are spread is from person to person in respiratory droplets of coughs and sneezes. This is called "droplet spread" and can easily reach 10 feet!

This can happen when droplets from a cough or sneeze of an infected person move through the air and are deposited on the mouth or nose of people nearby. Sometimes germs also can be spread when a person touches respiratory droplets from another person on a surface like a desk and then touches his or her own eyes, mouth or nose before washing their hands. We know that some viruses and bacteria can live two hours or longer on surfaces like cafeteria tables, doorknobs, and desks.

How to Stop the Spread of Germs

In a nutshell: take care to

- Cover your mouth and nose
- Clean your hands often

Remind your children to practice healthy habits, too.

- Cover your mouth and nose when coughing or sneezing
- Cough or sneeze into a tissue and then throw it away and wash your hands. No tissue? Cough or sneeze into the crook of your elbow.

Alcohol-Based Hand Wipes and Gel Sanitizers Work Too

When soap and water are not available, alcohol-based disposable hand wipes or gel sanitizers may be used. You can find them in most supermarkets and drugstores. If using gel, rub your hands until the gel is dry. The gel doesn't need water to work; the alcohol in it kills the germs on your hands.

Stay home when you are sick and check with a health care provider when needed

When you are sick or have flu symptoms, stay home, get plenty of rest, and check with a health care provider as needed.

Whenever a student is out sick, an excuse note is required within 48 hours of returning to school. If a student is out sick for five consecutive days, a doctor's note is required. Remember: Keeping your distance from others may protect them from getting sick.

Common symptoms of the flu include:

- fever (usually high)
- headache
- extreme tiredness
- cough
- sore throat
- runny or stuffy nose
- muscle aches, and
- nausea, vomiting, and diarrhea, (much more common among children than adults).

Viral Gastroenteritis

What is viral gastroenteritis?

Gastroenteritis means inflammation of the stomach and small and large intestines. Viral gastroenteritis is an infection caused by a variety of viruses that results in vomiting or diarrhea. It is often called the "stomach flu," although it is not caused by the influenza viruses.

What are the symptoms of viral gastroenteritis?

The main symptoms of viral gastroenteritis are watery diarrhea and vomiting. The affected person may also have headache, fever, and abdominal cramps ("stomach ache"). In general, the symptoms begin 1 to 2 days following infection with a virus that causes gastroenteritis and may last for 1 to 10 days, depending on which virus causes the illness.

Is viral gastroenteritis a serious illness?

For most people, it is not. People who get viral gastroenteritis almost always recover completely without any long-term problems.

Is the illness contagious? How are these viruses spread?

Yes, viral gastroenteritis is contagious. The viruses that cause gastroenteritis are spread through close contact with infected persons (for example, by sharing food, water, or eating utensils). Individuals may also become infected by eating or drinking contaminated foods or beverages.

Where and when does viral gastroenteritis occur?

Viral gastroenteritis affects people in all parts of the world. Each virus has its own seasonal activity. For example, in the United States, rotavirus and astrovirus infections occur during the cooler months of the year (October to April), whereas adenovirus infections occur throughout the year. Viral gastroenteritis outbreaks can occur in institutional settings, such as schools, child care facilities, and nursing homes, and can occur in other group settings, such as banquet halls, cruise ships, dormitories, and campgrounds.

Who gets viral gastroenteritis?

Anyone can get it. Viral gastroenteritis occurs in people of all ages and backgrounds. However, some viruses tend to cause diarrhea disease primarily among people in specific age groups. Rotavirus infection is the most common cause of diarrhea in infants and young children under 5 years old. Adenoviruses and astroviruses cause diarrhea mostly in young children, but older children and adults can also be affected. Norwalk and Noroviruses are more likely to cause diarrhea in older children and adults.

Practice other good health habits

Get plenty of sleep, be physically active, manage your stress, drink plenty of fluids, and eat nutritious food. Practicing healthy habits will help you stay healthy during flu season and all year long

More Facts, Figures, and How-To Ideas

CDC and its partner agencies and organizations offer a great deal of information about hand washing and other things you can do to stay healthy and avoid the germs that cause flu, the common cold, and other illnesses. See Other Resources and Posters on this Stop the Spread of Germs site for a select listing of Web sites, materials, and contact information www.cdc.gov/germstopper take note!

In the event that your child becomes ill during class on any particular day, your child's teacher will send him/her to the nurse. Based on a physical assessment, should the illness warrant dismissal, the parent or guardian will receive a call from the school nurse requesting that the student be picked up. Dismissals due to illness are handled only through the Nurse's Office. If you have any questions or concerns give us a call at 978-779-2257 x1. Happy Spring!!

Prom Dress Collection...Nurses Office

Does your daughter or a friend's daughter want to go to Prom, but finds the cost is a stumbling block? Does your son need a good suit for Prom but can't afford one right now?

Each year, during the months of February and March, the high school nurses conduct a collection of gently used prom dresses, shoes, evening purses, and good men's suits or tuxes. These lovely dresses and suits are taken to a little shop in Clinton called Hidden Treasures at 180 High Street. Here dresses, suits and shoes can be tried on, mulled over and purchased for $10 full length gowns, $5 knee length dresses and $5-10 for men's suits or tuxes. Store hours are: Tuesday –Saturday 10am-4pm starting March 1st.

Last year, the first year this Prom Program was launched, 100 gowns were sold for Prom, to kids who left with a smile on their faces. Most, if not all of these kids, would have missed out on Prom otherwise. Please check your closets and consider donating gently used gowns, shoes, purses, good men's suits or tuxes to this worthy cause. Your heart will thank you! You can bring them to the nurses' office at the high school or take them directly to Hidden Treasures in Clinton. Please bring them cleaned if possible.

Rotary offers fantastic Youth Leadership Conference opportunity for high school sophomores

The Nashoba Rotary Club is actively searching for qualified candidates to attend this year's Rotary Youth Leadership Awards (RYLA) Conference to be held from June 24th - June 26th, 2011 at Worcester State University in Worcester. The 19th Annual RYLA Conference will offer outstanding high school sophomores an opportunity to live, work and interact together in an atmosphere of friendly competition. It will be a program designed to challenge the participants to utilize and improve their skills and accept the responsibilities of leadership. Best of all, there is no charge to the students for the program! The Nashoba Rotary Club will sponsor one participant at this year's conference.

Robert Johnson, local Committee Chairperson, said that participants would be selected from young women and men who have exhibited leadership abilities and who will be entering their Junior year of high school in the fall. The Nashoba Rotary Club is now contacting high school principals, guidance counselors, youth organizations and other sources for nominations of conference participants.

Aimed at developing the leadership potential of young men and women, the conference will feature many thought-provoking events including interactive Leadership Labs, exciting guest speakers, and challenging mental and physical activities that will provide the participants with a chance to excel amongst and with their peers. Topics will include decision-making, critical thinking, communicating effectively, ethics, and public service.

Nashoba Rotary is a new club being formed as part of Rotary International and will be supporting the communities of Lancaster, Bolton and Stow. It meets Thursdays at 7:30 am at Great Brook Farms in Bolton. Guests are welcome.

Anyone interested in obtaining further information should visit <http://www.actonboxboroughrotary.org/ryla.html> or contact Sue Allaire, Career Counselor at NRHS, 978-779-0122; Robert Johnson at 978-779-2918; or any other member of the Nashoba Rotary Club.

Friends of Drama

Congratulations to the seniors on their first place win in the 2011 Class Plays competition on Friday, January 28th. All four classes did themselves proud with directing, producing and performing their plays, and the audience was treated to a entertaining night. Thanks to all who participated and supported the efforts.

The spring musical "CHICAGO" is set for March 18-20. Get your tickets early as it is sure to be another sellout! See ticket form attached.

Lastly, Friends of Drama has many active parents with graduating seniors. Their shoes will need to be filled for next year. Nashoba Drama is financially supported through our fundraising, and much of the behind the scenes work (set construction, publicity, costumes, etc.) is done by our dedicated parents. Positions opening up next year include:

- 🗑 Friends of Drama secretary
- 🗑 Ad Program layout and design (InDesign software helpful) for fall Ad campaign
- 🗑 Program Editor for 3 programs throughout the year
- 🗑 Publicity Chair
- 🗑 Hair/Makeup/Backstage Chair
- 🗑 CPA or someone familiar with non-profits to advise treasurer
- 🗑 Painting chair: coordinates and runs set painting (2 shows)
- 🗑 Ad Campaign trainee (train to share duties with a Friends of Music Parent in 2013)

Murder, Greed, Corruption,
Exploitation, Violence, and Treachery.... so begins the musical Chicago.

Chicago is a Kander and Ebb musical set in Prohibition-era Chicago and is the story of Roxie, a chorus girl who has murdered her lover but manages to get acquitted with the help of her lawyer. She teams up with another murderess to form an unusual nightclub act that they hope will keep them in the public eye. We are offering advanced ticket purchases for performances on Friday and Saturday, March 18th and 19th at 7:30 PM, and Sunday, March 20th at 2:00 PM. Parental guidance suggested.

To order tickets, simply return the order form below via the mail or place in the Drama mailbox located in the Nashoba Regional High School main office. Be sure to indicate the performance date(s) and the number of adult and student/senior tickets on the order form. Tickets and seats are on a first-come, first-served basis. It is wise to purchase tickets early, and to arrive in time to find the seats you desire.

Advanced ticket orders can be returned to you via mail, if you include a self-addressed stamped envelope. All advanced ticket reservations received after Monday, March 14th will be held at the door. If you have any questions, please call Lynn at 978-779-6225.
